TO: The American Embassy, DJAKARTA

This is a joint Treasury-State message for the U. S. Disbursing Officer and authorized personnel of agencies designated to use Indonesian rupiahs received from the sale of agricultural commodities under the above-cited agreement.

The U. S. Disbursing Officer will follow the instructions in A-87, dated January 19, 1961 as amended by CA-10995, dated June 20, 1961, with respect to deposits, refunds, and withdrawals. The procedures and accounts prescribed in the above-cited instructions are extended to include the agreement dated October 26, 1961, with the following additional provisions:

1. Deposits

The agreement provides that the amount of rupiahs to be deposited to the account of the Government of the United States of America shall be the equivalent of the dollar sales value of the commodities and ocean transportation costs reimbursed or financed by the Government of the United States of America (except excess costs resulting from the requirement that United States flag vessels be used) converted into rupiahs, as follows:

(a) at the rate for dollar exchange applicable to commercial import transactions on the dates of dollar disbursements by the United States, provided that a unitary exchange rate applying to all foreign exchange transactions is maintained by the Government of Indonesia, or

(b) if more than one
